Ja'Niyah Irving Youth Foundation
MEMORIAL WALK

The Ja'Niyah Irving Youth Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit founded in memory of Ja'Niyah Irving, a bright young girl whose life was tragically cut short in a semi-tractor trailer accident in 2009.

Our mission is to empower young girls ages 6-17 through mentorship, life skills training, cultural enrichment, and community service. For the past 15 years, we've served families through school supply drives, holiday baskets, and youth programs—often funded solely by personal contributions. We exist to service, mentorship, and community love.
