Board Description

The city commission shall appoint eleven members to the council. It is desired that the members be reflective of the racial, age, socio-economic and geographic diversity of the city. All members' permanent residence shall be within the municipal corporate limits of the City of Gainesville, Florida. Current employees of the city's police department are not eligible to serve on the council.

Each member shall be appointed to a 4-year term. However, to establish staggered terms, 3 initial appointees shall be appointed to a 2-year term, 4 initial appointees shall be appointed to a 3-year term and 4 initial appointees shall be appointed to a 4-year term.

It is the intent of the city commission to create, empower, staff, and fund a police advisory council whose purpose is to study the city's police department, gather information, receive community input concerning public safety issues and law enforcement needs and concerns, and make policy recommendations to the city regarding all aspects of the delivery of public safety services with the goal of maintaining a safe city that enjoys a strong, positive and trusting relationship between the community and the city police department.

Meet Chanae Jackson: The Accidental Activist

Chanae Jackson is a passionate social justice community activist, servant leader, strategist, entrepreneur, and published author. Her commitment to high ethical standards, frontline bravery, collaborative community engagements efforts, and proven track record make her a trusted resource and catalyst for change. Chanae earned the title of The Accidental Activist in 2018, after consistently sounding the injustice alarm and speaking truth to power despite the consequences.

Chanae has consistently mobilized the community to action. She proves that power is not ONLY for the privileged, but power belongs to anyone who is willing to stand up, show up, and speak up. Chanae encourages Black voters to run – not walk– to the polls, because voting is the equalizer that grants us all the same level of power.

Professional Profile

Chanae is a visionary that serves everyone she encounters with purpose. She is a Gainesville native who has spent her life using her personal and career experiences to serve others. In addition to her Real Estate experience, She possesses extensive experience in Banking/Finance, Sales, healthcare and hospitality. Chanae's previous experience as an employee/contractor of top brand companies such as Publix, The Cheesecake Factory, Hyatt Hotels, SunTrust Bank, UF Health, and HCA Healthcare has been pivotal in building a wealth of knowledge and resources that are utilized to best serve her clients' needs and desires.

Chanae's personal core values are integrity, diligence, and servant leadership. She owns and successfully operates multiple, sustainable businesses: Converge Creative Solutions (Research, Political Strategies and community engagement), Florida Forward Coalition (Community Building), Assurance Holdings (Property Management & Notary Signing Agent), and she is a Licensed Real Estate Agent with Keller Williams Realty- The largest Real Estate Company worldwide.

Giving Back

Since 2018, Chanae has strategically built an activism brand based on accountability, compassion, credibility, empathy, and authenticity. Her community service is multi-faceted. As a co-founder of the Black Parent Support Network, And We Rise Judicial Support Council, Healing for All board member, First Community CDC, and member of Alachua County Education Activists; her mission is to bring awareness to current social issues, address gaps in services, and work to offer fresh solutions for the existing social issues. Her vision embodies a holistic approach- Love, Heal, and Equip every member of our "Beloved community." As a LifeQuest Multicultural Advisory Committee member and an Alachua County Community Health Advisor that represents University of Florida Health Cancer Center's Office of Community Outreach and Engagement, her mission is to improve health outcomes and attain healthcare justice for Black people.

Chanae has previously served as a United Way Certified Financial Coach, a member of the Alachua County Education Taskforce, Vice-Chair of the Alachua County Human Rights Advisory Board, Chair of the Alachua County Victim Services and Rape Crisis Center Advisory Board, the Chair of the City of Gainesville Community Development Advisory Board, and Vice-Chair of the City of Gainesville Parks and Recreation Advisory Board, NCFIL High School High Tech Business Advisory Council member, Tobacco Free Partnership of Marion County Advisory Council member, Ocala Domestic Violence Shelter Volunteer and Pace Center for Girls Marion Board member. She has also served on various PTA/PTSA/PTO committees and School Advisory Councils over the years. It is her sincere belief that the greatest among us are servants.

Why She Is Different

Chanae believes the community's success is measured by its most vulnerable members. She leverages her Bachelor's degree in psychology and skills attained in her activism and professional endeavors to transform systems through research, intervention, collaboration, and policy advocacy. Chanae's audacious, accidental activism has been featured locally and nationally in print, on the radio and digital media publications including: The New York Times and Washington Post. The deliberative vision in her written work has been featured in local, regional, and national print and digital news media and magazines. Additionally, as a contributing author in “The Boy Book”, Chanae gives readers a front-row seat to the plight of mothers of Black sons. In her debut literary work, Yeah, I Said It, I don't Give a D.A.M.N., Chanae highlights and re-educates her readers regarding the detrimental effects of complacency while waiting for change. Her insight places a mirror in front of readers, and allows them to ask themselves, "Am I a change-agent, a culprit, or am I complicit?" She provides a call to action to ALL people, especially those in power (and with perceived power).

Current/Upcoming Projects

UF Health Cancer Center/Office of Community Outreach and Engagement Community Project Continuity
Chanae serves as an Alachua County Community Health Ambassador. She plays a vital role in collaborating with the leadership team, partners, and local families to increase cervical cancer screening awareness and engage with community members about the benefits of cancer prevention for women. The success of the project hinges upon your expertise working with diverse communities and groups within the county. She helps to build partnerships and co-design practical initiatives for holistic health promotion. The project is a community-engaged research process with transparent bi-directional communication, mutual co-learning, and shared ownership of the program successes and products.

North Central Florida March for Reproductive Rights and Justice

Chanae is hailed as an influential voice in our community. She was instrumental in the North Central Florida March for Reproductive Rights and Justice. Her recent planning collaboration with Women's March Florida, National Women's Liberation, UF Planned Parenthood, and North Central Florida Indivisible successfully garnered a crowd of more than 600 attendees. As a speaker, she educated listeners on the importance of utilizing a Reproductive Justice framework.

Vanderbilt University's Public Theology and Racial Justice Collaborative

Chanae's collaboration with Vanderbilt University's Divinity School addressed the premise that Racism is a public health issue wreaking havoc on minorities. She assembled two panels of local elected officials, nonprofit organization leaders, theologians, activists, and community members to discuss how to eradicate racism and its reciprocal forms, steps to provide marginalized communities with health equity and access, actions reconcile communities and actively break down the barriers of race, culture, gender, social class and ethnicity. She has created a workgroup that is advocating the passage of a resolution that will address structural racism. Alachua County would be the fourth county in Florida to pass this type of resolution.

Mayors for Basic Guaranteed Income CGIR Research Fellow(Just Income GNV)

Chanae has been selected by University of Pennsylvania to be the research fellow that supports the Just Income GNV pilot administered by Community Spring. This is a guaranteed income pilot designed to mitigate known barriers to successful reentry and unlock the potential of justice-impacted people in Alachua County.

Inclusive Community Building Participatory Research-Co-Author

Chanae is honored to participate in this collaborative effort to deepen thinking and practice around how to hold space for authentic collaboration and inclusive community building with a focus on equity and multicultural anti-racist practices.

Activist Training Academy Founder

In 2022, Chanae will launch the Intentional Activist Institute™. The organization will equip and provide certifications to stakeholders who are interested in becoming life-long community activists.

Podcast Launch

The Accidental Activist's Podcast- Talking S.H.I.T. (Stimulating & Highly Intellectual Talk will launch June 2022.

Institute for Black Justice Collaboration Symposium Speaker

Chanae has been invited to be a headlined guest speaker at this three day symposium. Her interactive presentation will focus on intentionality, accountability, and the nuances of systemic change. This event will be held and co-hosted by University of Washington- June 2022

FAU WeLead Student Symposium Facilitator

Chanae and the other co-founders of Black Parent Support Network(BPSN) were invited to give an interactive presentation addressing community activism, liberation and how they are woven into social justice- January 2020

Spencer Foundation Research Grant- Black Parent Support Network as Co-Principal Investigator

Chanae and the other co-founders of Black Parent Support Network(BPSN), in Collaboration with FAU College of Education, are conducting an intellectually ambitious, and technically sound education research project that addresses ameliorating racial inequality in education.

The Consortium: An Incubator For Community Well-Being

FAU College of Education and Black Parent Support Network (BPSN) have developed a Consortium focused on strengthening the power of community based educational organizing efforts through institution-building activities. The consortium is designed to further the objectives, outcomes and impact of community organizing for Black education through strengthening the institution-building efforts indigenous to African descent communities.

Justice Support Council

Chanae envisioned this initiative after George Floyd was murdered. The connection of marching in the streets to oppose police violence, and standing with the community in the courtroom to challenge the criminal/legal system. Led by the very families whose loved ones are facing charges in the system, this is a community organizing model for people that have been justice involved, their families, and communities to impact the outcomes and transform the landscape of power in the court system. There are four focus areas:

- Law Enforcement Accountability
- Judicial Report Card
- Community Courtroom Advocacy
- Revamp Court Services
- De-carceration

Community Partnership and Youth Leadership Resource Hub

Chanae is the lead on this project. It is designed to create and sustain a multi-agency collaborative that provides a range of essential youth development services for youth ages 6-24.. This project has two primary goals: (1) to create a joyful, nurturing space where youth who are most in need can be nurtured, supported, and developed to meet their potential and continue to succeed in life and as children and adolescents; (2) to support grassroots organizations and volunteer agencies who have a history of supporting youth, especially African American youth without the benefit of accumulated wealth and organizational supports and structure. These agencies and these youth, both who suffer in the context of historical and contemporary structure, will benefit drastically from a collaborative, synergistic whole child and community approach to child and youth out-of-school development.

Community Based Doula/Midwifery Model

Chanae has analyzed a myriad of research that asserts that community-based doulas and midwives play crucial roles in improving maternal outcomes and experiences for communities most affected by discrimination and disparities in health outcomes. Creating an initiative to address three main areas: the role and importance of community-based birth workers and the recentering of community and humanity in pregnancy-related care; guidelines for health care system integration and the role of local government; and the creation of a progressive vision for pregnancy-related care in Alachua County.

In Her Free Time

When Chanae is not working in her community, she is spending quality time with her children creating memories and focusing on the small actions that they can take to preserve the environment. Chanae is also an avid reader that enjoys traveling and creating her own family traditions.

Why are you interested in serving on this board? (Please answer separately for each board you are applying to.) :

I have spent my entire career within our criminal justice system and have seen first hand the impact it has on people; both positive and negative. Law Enforcement Officers are often the first contact for people into the system and I really do believe that they can have a very positive impact if they choose to. I believe that I can assist in this goal by offering my years of experience in dealing with people within the system after coming in contact with law enforcement and help to facilitate interactions that would benefit not only those involved, but our community as a whole. I see this position as not just a crucial oversight type committee, but one that can improve all actors within our criminal justice system. I can help with that and thus I am interested in this position.
